

Think fragrant candles, scented stones and aromatic diffusers, wood-burning fireplaces, cozy, freshly laundered sheets and pillowcases.

scent

For me, a home is made a haven with scent first. Log fires, a favorite scented candle — mine is Diptyque's Feu de bois — or freshly pressed linen. Then, it's lighting — soft, dim, intimate light from a picture lamp or lantern candles. Plus, lots of books piled all around — on the floor, on vintage and tin bookshelves — mixed with newspapers and my favorite magazines.”

—TALIA MARSHALL, 30/32

LEFT CANDLE: LAMP: BURNING: FEU DE BOIS: DIPTYQUE; CANDLE: BURNING: FEU DE BOIS: DIPTYQUE; CANDLE: BURNING: FEU DE BOIS: DIPTYQUE

RIGHT ARRANGEMENT BY THE STYLING: JESSICA LEE. BOOKS: CHRISTOPHER ANDERSON'S HOUSE OF SANDS; SHANE TOFFI'S, PAGE 112

sight

Think memory-evoking photos, enchanting artwork, sentimental objects, soothing colors, uncluttered decor, dinner switches, table lamps, flickering tea lights, elegant window coverings, plants and flowers, coffee-table books.

“To me, the most important elements of a great home are comfy sofas, soft lighting and lots of books everywhere.”

—JANE GUZZETTA, INTERIOR DESIGNER

FOR MORE SCENTS FOR INSPIRATION, VISIT WWW.STYLEATHOME.COM